Re: Liquor Compliance Violation – NoBull Smokehouse

It is alleged an employee at this licensed establishment served a person under the age of 21 an alcoholic beverage in violation of North Dakota Century Code and/or Fargo Municipal Code. An affidavit detailing the offense was timely sent to the City Attorney Ian McLean. Notice of the hearing was sent to the licensee as required under law.

Historically, alcohol compliance violations were first presented to the LCB (Liquor Control Board) for consideration before proceeding to the City Commission. However, last summer the state amended the North Dakota Century Code (NDCC § 5-02-10). As part of the amendments, there are new timelines and noticing requirements that requires the LCB be bypassed in some liquor compliance failures.

Recommended Motion

Find a liquor compliance violation occurred and impose a penalty as required under statute or ordinance with consideration of any required mitigating factors.
